

RULES FOR THE ROAD

- 1 Be concise. Please share your thoughts and answers, but be considerate so that others will have time to share their answers also. Be charitable and kind. Be willing to share with the group, but do not try to dominate the conversation. Use the time after the class to find help with any personal issues or problems you may be confronting in your life.

“Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.”

(James 1:19–20)

- 2 Be thoughtful with your answer. Consider your words. Do not simply regurgitate what you have always heard. We have the tendency to speak in “Christianese” — words that only people who grew up on the pews would understand. Think about how your words will be heard by others. Will they understand what you are saying? Is what you are about to say going to be useful for the building up of the faith of others? Or will your words be confusing, cause hurt, or worse, damage someone’s faith? Speak without harshness or anger, but with kindness and humility.

“Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.”

(Ephesians 4:29)

- 3 Rely on the scriptures for truth. It is easy to rely upon conventional, worldly wisdom as truth. Bible study is about seeking God’s answers for our lives, not dispensing the advice of the world. We must consider that our natural answers may be the wrong answers if they are not founded on God’s word.

“For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.”

(1 Corinthians 1:25)

BIBLE STUDY BASICS

Have you ever read a chapter in the Bible but then could not remember what you had read? Have you ever fallen asleep while reading? An hour after you read, do you retain what you have read? These problems destroy enjoyment in Bible reading and therefore we must use a method of Bible reading that will solve this problem. To read properly we must be keen observers. We must see words and phrases that stand out while at the same time collecting the whole thought. Remember, the important thing is not how many times you have gone through the Bible, but how many times the Bible has gone through you!

Observe // what do I see?

Every time we study the Bible, the first thing to ask is, "What do I see?" This is the crucial skill of observation, which lays the groundwork for your study. The text is given to you so that you will underline, circle, box, and highlight important words as you read. As you read look for comparisons, contrasts, purposes, results, causes, explanations, conclusions, and conditions. Ask yourself who, what, where, when, why, and how as you read. Keep asking these questions as you read to prevent a lazy brain while reading. Look for themes and main ideas from the passage.

Interpret // what does it mean?

Our observation of a passage should stir interesting yet challenging questions, leading us to the second stage of our Bible study: interpretation. Reread through the passage after your observation notations have been made looking to answer what the passage means. Record your explanations of the text in the workbook.

Apply // how does this affect me?

Our Bible study is not over until we apply what we have learned to our everyday lives. Write down lessons that you have learned for you own life especially things that you see you need to change. Only you know your heart and what is happening in your life to be able to apply God's word directly to you. Bible study is fruitless if we do not take the information we have learned and directly change our lives. Write down how the passage affects you. The transformation section in the workbook will help you in this effort.

Share // how can I share my findings with us?

Now we want to share our findings with others. We want to share our observations, interpretations, and applications with others in the Bible class. This is your opportunity to hear what others have found in their studies and for you to share what you found. By doing this we are able to build one another up and grow up in the unity of the faith (Ephesians 4:12-13). If we do not share what we have found then we will be unable to grow together as the family of Christ.

Unless otherwise indicated, all Scripture quotations are from the English Standard Version (ESV).

LIVING BY FAITH

HEBREWS 11:1-4

1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. 2 For by it the people of old received their commendation. 3 By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. 4 By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. (ESV)

1 Now faith is the reality of what is hoped for, the proof of what is not seen. 2 For by this our ancestors were approved. 3 By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible. 4 By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was approved as a righteous man, because God approved his gifts, and even though he is dead, he still speaks through his faith. (CSB)

- 1 Examining the context before Hebrews 11 is important to be able to appropriately understand and apply the author's message about faith. Read Hebrews 10:32-39. What have these Christians been experiencing? How does the author encourage these Christians? In particular, what does the author say about faith and his hopeful expectation for these Christians?
- 2 What is the author teaching us in verse 1 about faith and what it is for the Christian? Consider other translations as you explain the meaning of faith.
- 3 Explain verse 2. How were the people of God approved/commended in the past?
- 4 What do we understand by faith (11:3)? Why must this be "by faith?" What do we learn?
- 5 What did Abel do by faith? How was he commended? How does he still speak through his faith?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What questions do you have from the lesson?
- What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
- What will you do differently in your life?

HEBREWS 11:5-7

5 By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. 6 And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. 7 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. (ESV)

5 By faith Enoch was taken away, and so he did not experience death. He was not to be found because God took him away. For before he was taken away, he was approved as one who pleased God. 6 Now without faith it is impossible to please God, since the one who draws near to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. 7 By faith Noah, after he was warned about what was not yet seen and motivated by godly fear, built an ark to deliver his family. By faith he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. (CSB)

- 1 What did Enoch do "by faith?" Enoch's life is recorded in Genesis 5:19-24. What are we supposed to learn from Enoch?
- 2 What is the key message in verse 6? Why is this true? What must faith include?
- 3 What did Noah do "by faith?" Explain why Noah's actions were by faith, according to the author.
- 4 The author says there were a number of things that Noah did that showed his faith. What showed Noah's faithfulness, according to the author?
- 5 What do we learn about faith from this section of scripture?

8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. 9 By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. 11 By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore. (ESV)

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed and set out for a place that he was going to receive as an inheritance. He went out, even though he did not know where he was going. 9 By faith he stayed as a foreigner in the land of promise, living in tents as did Isaac and Jacob, coheirs of the same promise. 10 For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. 11 By faith even Sarah herself, when she was unable to have children, received power to conceive offspring, even though she was past the age, since she considered that the one who had promised was faithful. 12 Therefore, from one man—in fact, from one as good as dead—came offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky and as innumerable as the grains of sand along the seashore. - 3 What was the motivation for Abraham’s faith, according to verse 10? What do we learn? How does this fit what the author taught us in verse 6?
- 4 What did Sarah do “by faith” in verse 11? What do we learn about what faith looks like? What do we learn about God from this?
- 5 What is the author teaching us about God and faith in verse 12?

13 These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. 14 For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. 15 If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city. (ESV)

13 These all died in faith, although they had not received the things that were promised. But they saw them from a distance, greeted them, and confessed that they were foreigners and temporary residents on the earth. 14 Now those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. 15 If they were thinking about where they came from, they would have had an opportunity to return. 16 But they now desire a better place—a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them. (CSB)

- 1 What do we learn about all the people of faith, according to verse 13? What did they not receive? What did they see? What did they acknowledge for their lives? What do we learn about faith and how to live?
- 2 What are the people of faith saying in verse 14? What are they making clear? What do we learn? Are we saying the same things as these people of faith?
- 3 What would have happened if these people of faith were thinking about the land they left behind, according to verse 15? What the author teaching us about faith and what true faith looks like?
- 4 What are some things we have left behind by faith? Do we think about what we have left behind?
- 5 What are the people of faith desiring, according to verse 16? Is this true about us?
- 6 Why is God not ashamed of these people of faith? What has God done for those who live by faith?

HEBREWS 11:17-22

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, 18 of whom it was said, “Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.” 19 He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. 20 By faith Isaac invoked future blessings on Jacob and Esau. 21 By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his bones. (ESV)

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. He received the promises and yet he was offering his one and only son, 18 the one to whom it had been said, Your offspring will be traced through Isaac. 19 He considered God to be able even to raise someone from the dead; therefore, he received him back, figuratively speaking. 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and he worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, as he was nearing the end of his life, mentioned the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions concerning his bones. (CSB)

- 1 What else did Abraham do “by faith?” How was he able to do what God said? How can we have this kind of faith in God?
- 2 What did Isaac do “by faith?” Consider how this event is recorded in Genesis 27:30-40. How can it be that what Isaac did was by faith? What did Isaac do? What did Isaac not do?
- 3 What did Jacob do “by faith?” This event is recorded in Genesis 48:13-22. What did Jacob do that showed his faith? What did Jacob do? What did Jacob not do?
- 4 What did Joseph do “by faith?” Are you surprised as what the author highlights in Joseph’s life as an act of faith considering how much faith we read about in Joseph’s life? This event is recorded in Genesis 50:22-26. What did Joseph do that showed his faith? What is the author focusing on?

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. 24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. 26 He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them. (ESV)

- 1 What did Moses do "by faith" in verse 23? Explain how what happened was by faith? What do we learn about faith?
- 2 What did Moses do "by faith" in verses 24-25? What showed his faith? How does the author describe what Moses did? What do we learn?
- 3 What was Moses' motivation that caused him to display this faith? What did he consider? What did he look toward? What do we learn?
- 4 What did Moses do "by faith" in verse 27? How did Moses make this decision?
- 5 What did Moses do "by faith" in verse 28? Why is this considered an act of faith? What do we learn?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
- What will you do differently in your life?

HEBREWS 11:29-40

29 By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

32 And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— 33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

35 Women received back their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, so that they might rise again to a better life. 36 Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. 37 They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword. They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated— 38 of whom the world was not worthy—wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, 40 since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

- 1 What did the Hebrew people do “by faith?” What made this event an act of faith? What do we learn?
- 2 What about the walls of Jericho falling was “by faith?” What do we learn?
- 3 What did Rahab do “by faith?” Her life is recorded in Joshua 2:1-21 and 6:22-27. What do we learn about faith?
- 4 What is being taught to us about the actions of faith of the rest in verses 32-38? What does faith do? What do we learn?
- 5 What important conclusion is drawn regarding these faith-filled people in verse 39? How were they able to do what they did? What does faith do? What do we learn?

TRANSFORMATION:

1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. 4 In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

1 Therefore, since we also have such a large cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us lay aside every hindrance and the sin that so easily ensnares us. Let us run with endurance the race that lies before us, 2 keeping our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. For the joy that lay before him, he endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider him who endured such hostility from sinners against himself, so that you won't grow weary and give up. In struggling against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (CSB)

- 1 Who are the great cloud of witnesses that surround us? What two things must we lay aside? What does this look like? What practical changes need to be made?
- 2 What must we do, according to verse 1? What does this look like?
- 3 Where should our eyes be focused as we run? What about Jesus should we be focusing on? What did Jesus teach us? What did he show us?
- 4 What is the instruction for us? How should we look at what we are going through? What does this teach us about faith?
- 5 Read what the apostle Peter instructs his readers in 1 Peter 4:12-14. What is the message? How does this message fit what the author of Hebrews is teaching here?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
- What will you do differently in your life?

HEBREWS 12:5-13

5 And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? “My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. 6 For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives.”

7 It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? 8 If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. 9 Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? 10 For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. 11 For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

12 Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed. (ESV)

- 1 What is God’s discipline referring to in the context of Hebrews 10-12? Does the author mean that God was punishing these people? What were these people experiencing and what was God doing through it?
- 2 What does God’s discipline mean? What does his discipline state about our status with him?
- 3 Why is God’s discipline necessary? What are we asked to have during the seasons of discipline?
- 4 How does God parallel himself to earthly fathers? What are we supposed to learn about God?
- 5 What does the author say is the purpose of God’s discipline? What is the intended result?
- 6 What is the admonition in verses 12-13? What will happen if we do not listen to the admonition, according to verse 13?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?

HEBREWS 12

14 Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. 15 See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no “root of bitterness” springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled; 16 that no one is sexually immoral or unholy like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal. 17 For you know that afterward, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no chance to repent, though he sought it with tears. (ESV)

14 Pursue peace with everyone, and holiness—without it no one will see the Lord. 15 Make sure that no one falls short of the grace of God and that no root of bitterness springs up, causing trouble and defiling many. 16 And make sure that there isn’t any immoral or irreverent person like Esau, who sold his birthright in exchange for a single meal. 17 For you know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, even though he sought it with tears, because he didn’t find any opportunity for repentance. (CSB)

- 1 Consider verse 14. Is this instruction surprising? What does it mean and how do we strive for these two attributes so that we will see the Lord?
- 2 How would one “fail to obtain the grace of God?” What is a “root of bitterness?” How would this spring up in our lives? How do we protect against this?
- 3 How does Esau fit the teaching that the author is giving? Read Genesis 25:27-34. Explain the meaning of the birthright and explain the trade Esau gives.
- 4 Why was Esau rejected from receiving the blessing? How does this inform what God is doing in the dispensing of the blessings in Genesis 27?
- 5 Why did Esau find “no chance to repent?” How could this be true? What is the author teaching?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What questions do you have from the lesson?

HEBREWS 12:18-29

18 For you have not come to what may be touched, a blazing fire and darkness and gloom and a tempest 19 and the sound of a trumpet and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that no further messages be spoken to them. 20 For they could not endure the order that was given, “If even a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.” 21 Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I tremble with fear.” 22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, 23 and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, 24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

25 See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. 26 At that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens.” 27 This phrase, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of things that are shaken—that is, things that have been made—in order that the things that cannot be shaken may remain. 28 Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, 29 for our God is a consuming fire. (ESV)

- 1 Write down everything we have not come to, according to the text. What are verses 18-21 referring to and to what event?
- 2 What was the people’s response and conclusion from that event in verses 18-21?
- 3 Write down everything we have come to, according to the text. What do we have?
- 4 What admonition is given in verse 25? What is the contrast that the author draws?
- 5 Explain the promise in verses 26-27. What are the “things that are shaken” that are removed? What are the “things that cannot be shaken” and how do they remain?
- 6 What instruction is given in light of what we have come to and what we have not come to (12:28-29)?
- 7 How is God described? What are we to learn? What does all of this do for our faith?

HEBREWS 13:1-6

1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. 3 Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. 5 Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." 6 So we can confidently say, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?" (ESV)

After giving instructions about faith and what God is doing in their lives, the author now describes some of what faith will do in their lives. Consider the instructions of faith in Hebrews 13.

- 1 What will brotherly love look like so that it continues? How do we practice this?
- 2 What does hospitality look like? What is the reason given for being hospitable? What is this referring to and what does this mean?
- 3 How are we to care for others (13:3)? What will this look like in our lives? How do we do this? What is the reason given to show such care for each other?
- 4 Explain verse 4. How do we hold marriage in honor among us? How do we keep the marriage bed undefiled? What is the reason given that we must be honorable in our marriages?
- 5 How can we keep our lives "free from the love of money"? How can we be content with what we have? What will this look like in our lives?
- 6 How does God's promise in verses 5-6 motivate us to live by faith?
- 7 What keeps us from living in fear rather than faith? How can we apply this in our lives to live this way?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
- What will you do differently in your life?

HEBREWS 13:7-17

7 Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. 9 Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. 10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. 12 So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. 13 Therefore let us go to him outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. 14 For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. 15 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. 16 Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. 17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls, as those who will have to give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you. (ESV)

- 1 Why are we to remember our leaders? Who is the author referring to? What are they to teach us?
- 2 What is the message of verses 8-9? How does this help us in our life of faith?
- 3 What altar do we have? What is the message for the author's audience?
- 4 What does the author teach about Jesus and what are we supposed to do (13:12-15)? How do we do this and what will this look like in our lives?
- 5 What else does our life of faith look like (13:16)? What sacrifices are we offering?
- 6 Why are we to obey our leaders (13:17)? How would we have our leaders watch over us with joy and not groaning? What will we do in our lives?

TRANSFORMATION:

- What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
- What will you do differently in your life?
